COVID-19 and Older People:
Lessons on Quality of Care and Building Design in Long-Term Care

Mr. Greg Shaw
Director, International and Corporate Relations,
International Federation on Ageing

6 November 2020 07:00 (GMT-5)

Greetings,

The COVID-19 pandemic has had a devastating impact on the long-term care sector around the globe. Now is the time to respond to the international community's urgent call for action with innovative solutions and practices that respect and protect the rights of older people living in care facilities, and their families. In this IFA Virtual Town Hall, Mr. Greg Shaw, Director of International and Corporate Relations at the International Federation on Ageing, leads a discussion around the lessons being learned on quality of care and building design in long-term care.

Date and Time: Friday 6th November 2020
7:00-8:00 am (Eastern Standard Time)

Opening Remarks: Mr. Greg Shaw
Director of International and Corporate Relations
International Federation on Ageing
