Addressing Inequalities Experienced by LBGTQI Older Persons

This program draws attention to the experiences of older LBGTQI people and underscores that the experience of a lifetime of stigma and discrimination sets up many barriers across the life course. This program will address that marginalized people need to be included in human rights protections by government, civil society and international organizations.

Speakers:

Patrick Aitcheson, Chief of Staff, SAGE: Advocacy and Services for LGBT Elders

Siri May, UN Coordinator, Outright Action International

Moderator: Vincent Taccetta, Intern at the Unitarian Universalist Association and graduate student at Columbia University School of Social Work
