📅 08 July 2022

🕒 07:00 - 08:00AM EDT

Ms. Jayne Armstrong
Project Manager,
880 Cities

Greetings,

With the rise in isolation amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, organizations such as Mosaic and 880 Cities have adopted asset-based community development to encourage equitable community engagement and socialization, especially among older people — protecting their right to mobility and providing the ability to age in place.

To share their extensive experience in applying a community integrated model of care that addresses the clinical, personal supports, and wider non-clinical psychosocial needs of the person, Ms. Jane Teasdale and Ms. Jayne Armstrong will be leading a discussion on “Person Centered Care & The Seniors' Outdoor Activation Toolkit” in the IFA Global Cafe series.

Date and Time: Friday, 08 July 2022
7:00-8:00 am (Eastern Time)

Opening Remarks: Ms. Jane Teasdale, Principal, Director of Business Development
Mosaic Home Care Services & Community Resource Centres
Ms. Jayne Armstrong, Project Manager, 880 Cities
